

KRAUSSCHÖNBERG

MOMENTS

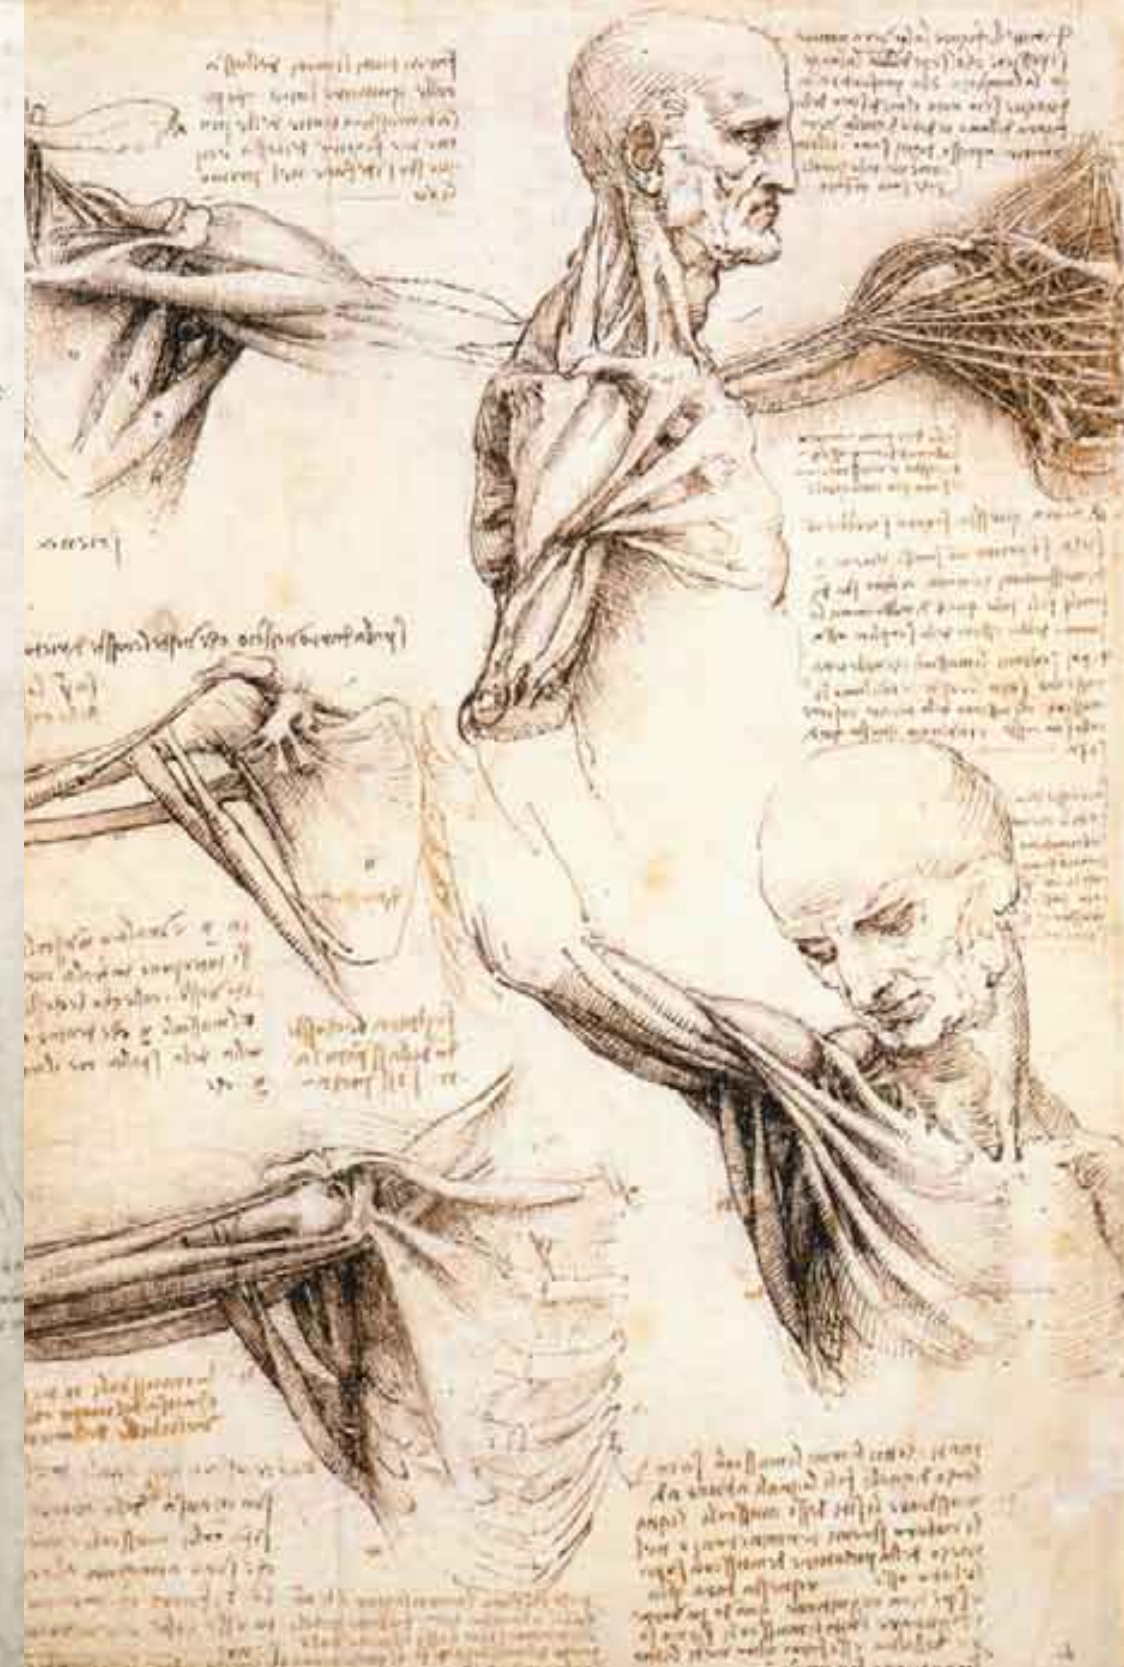

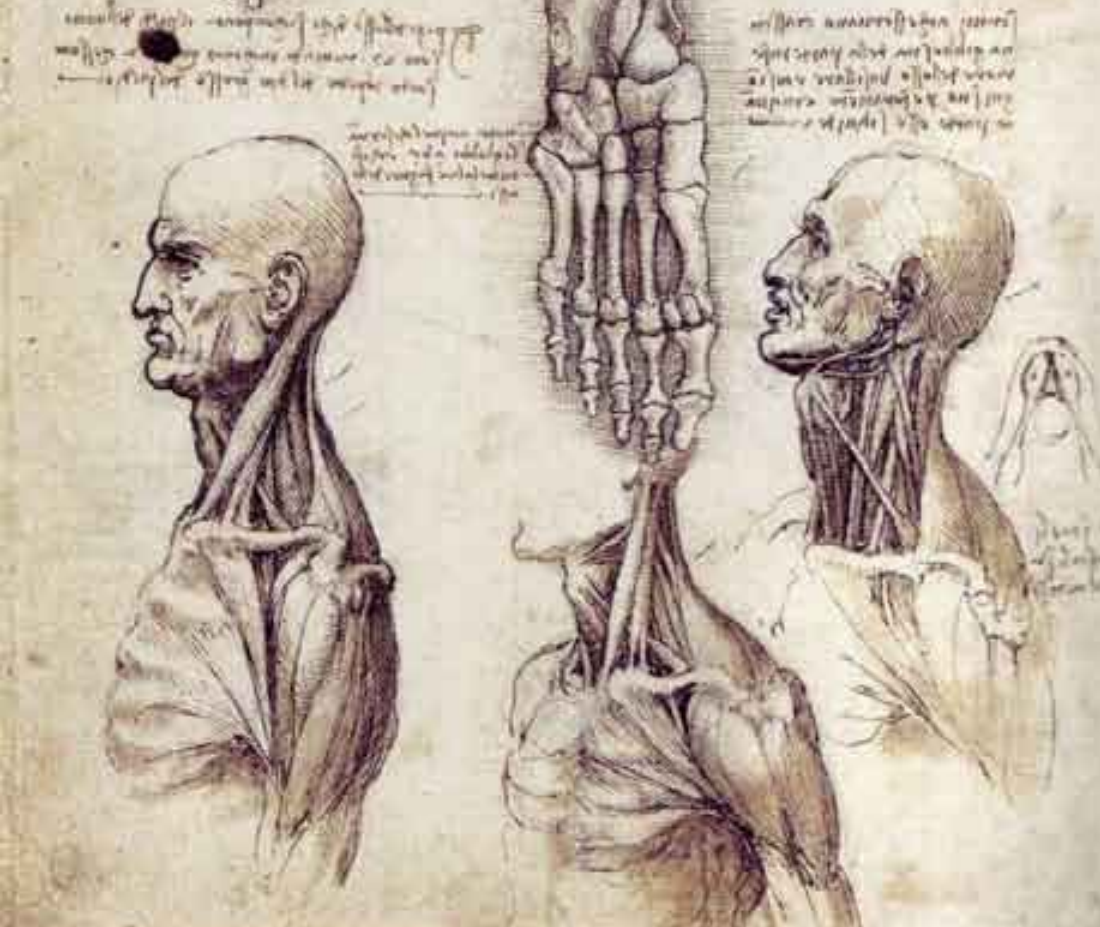

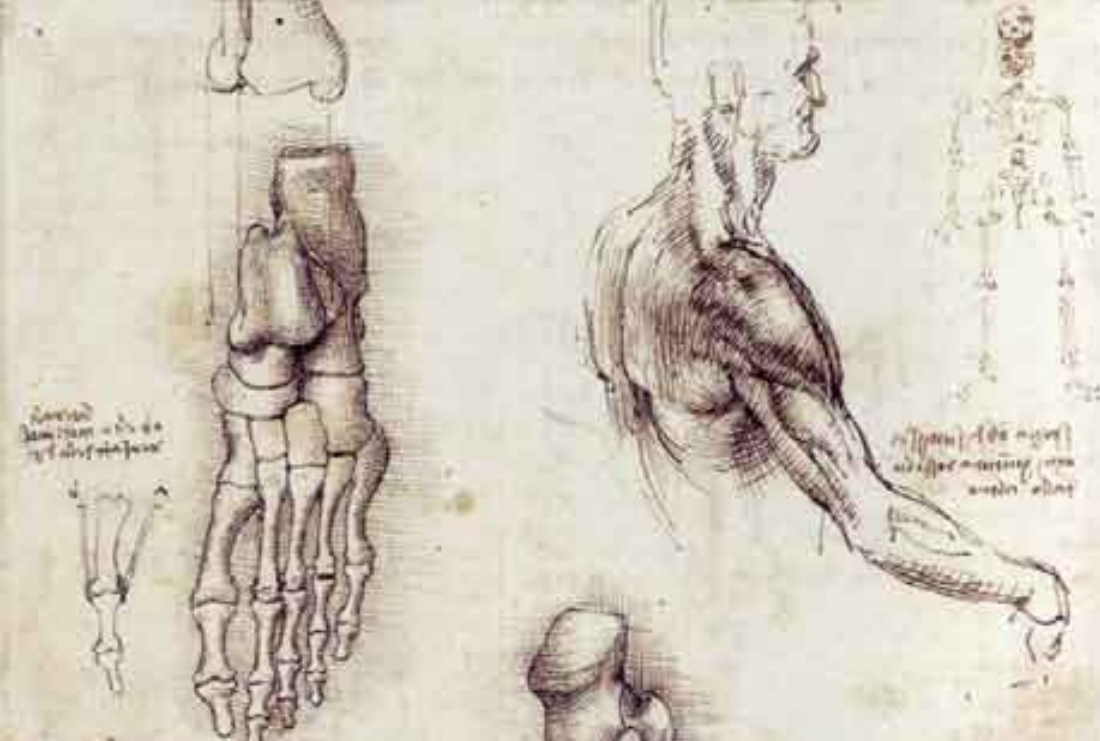

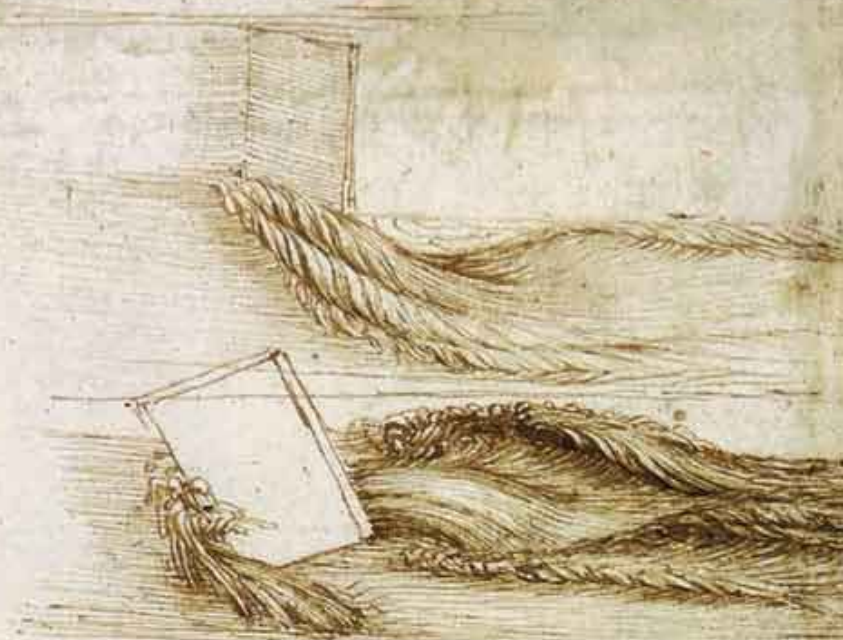

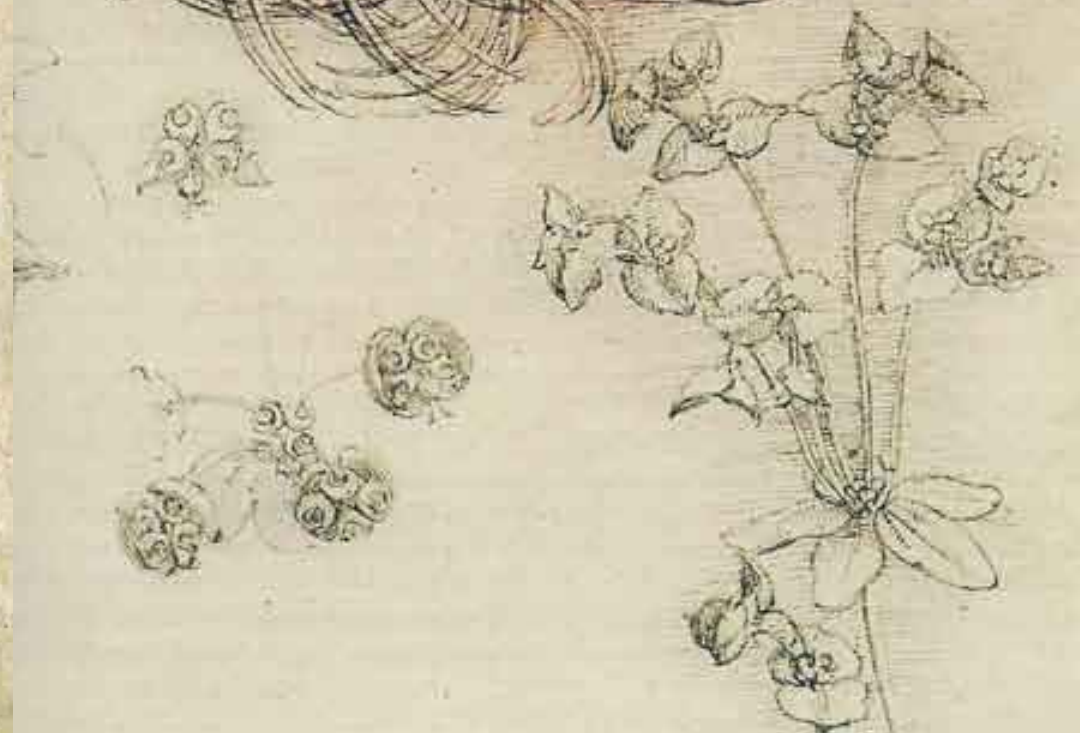

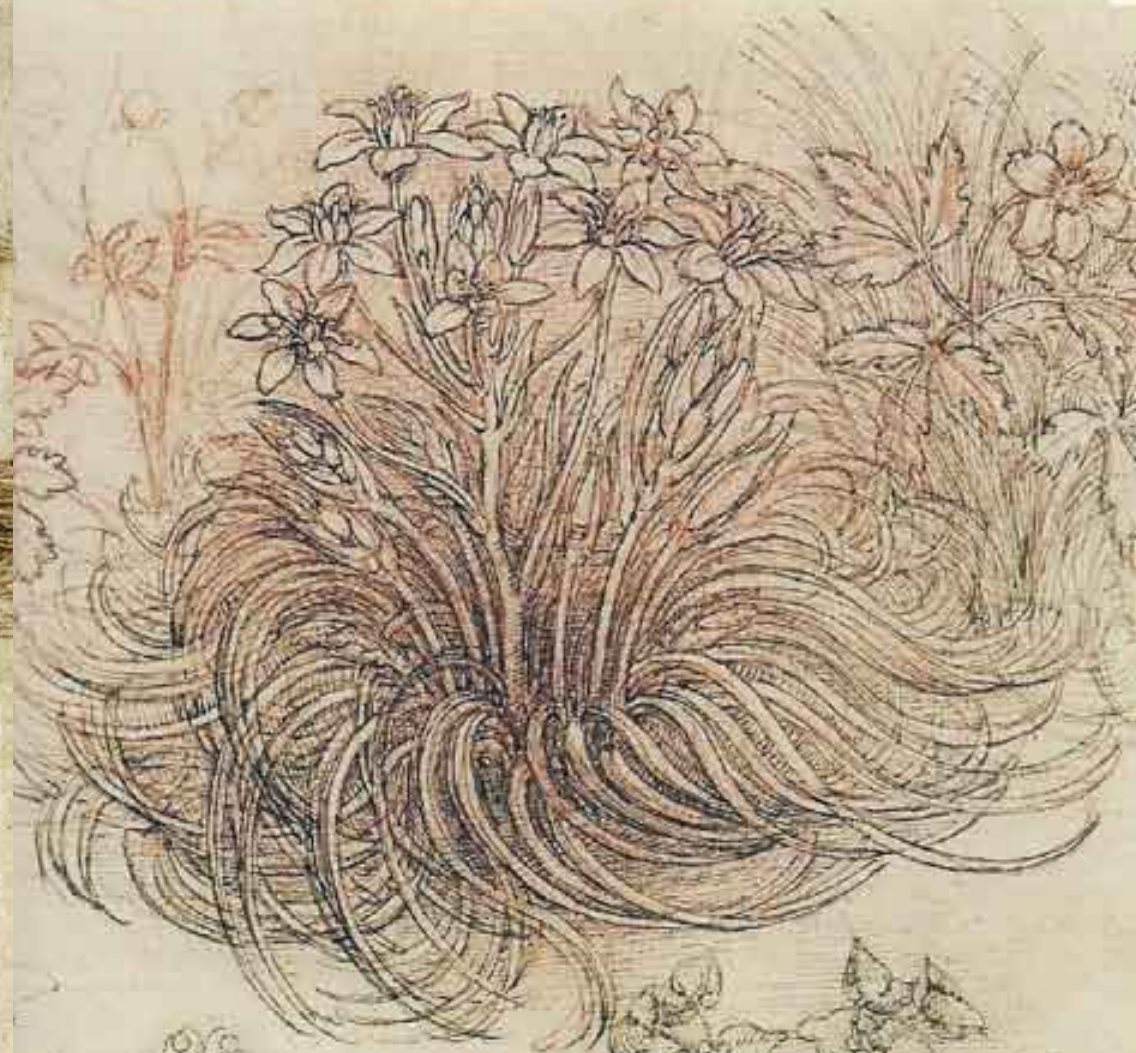

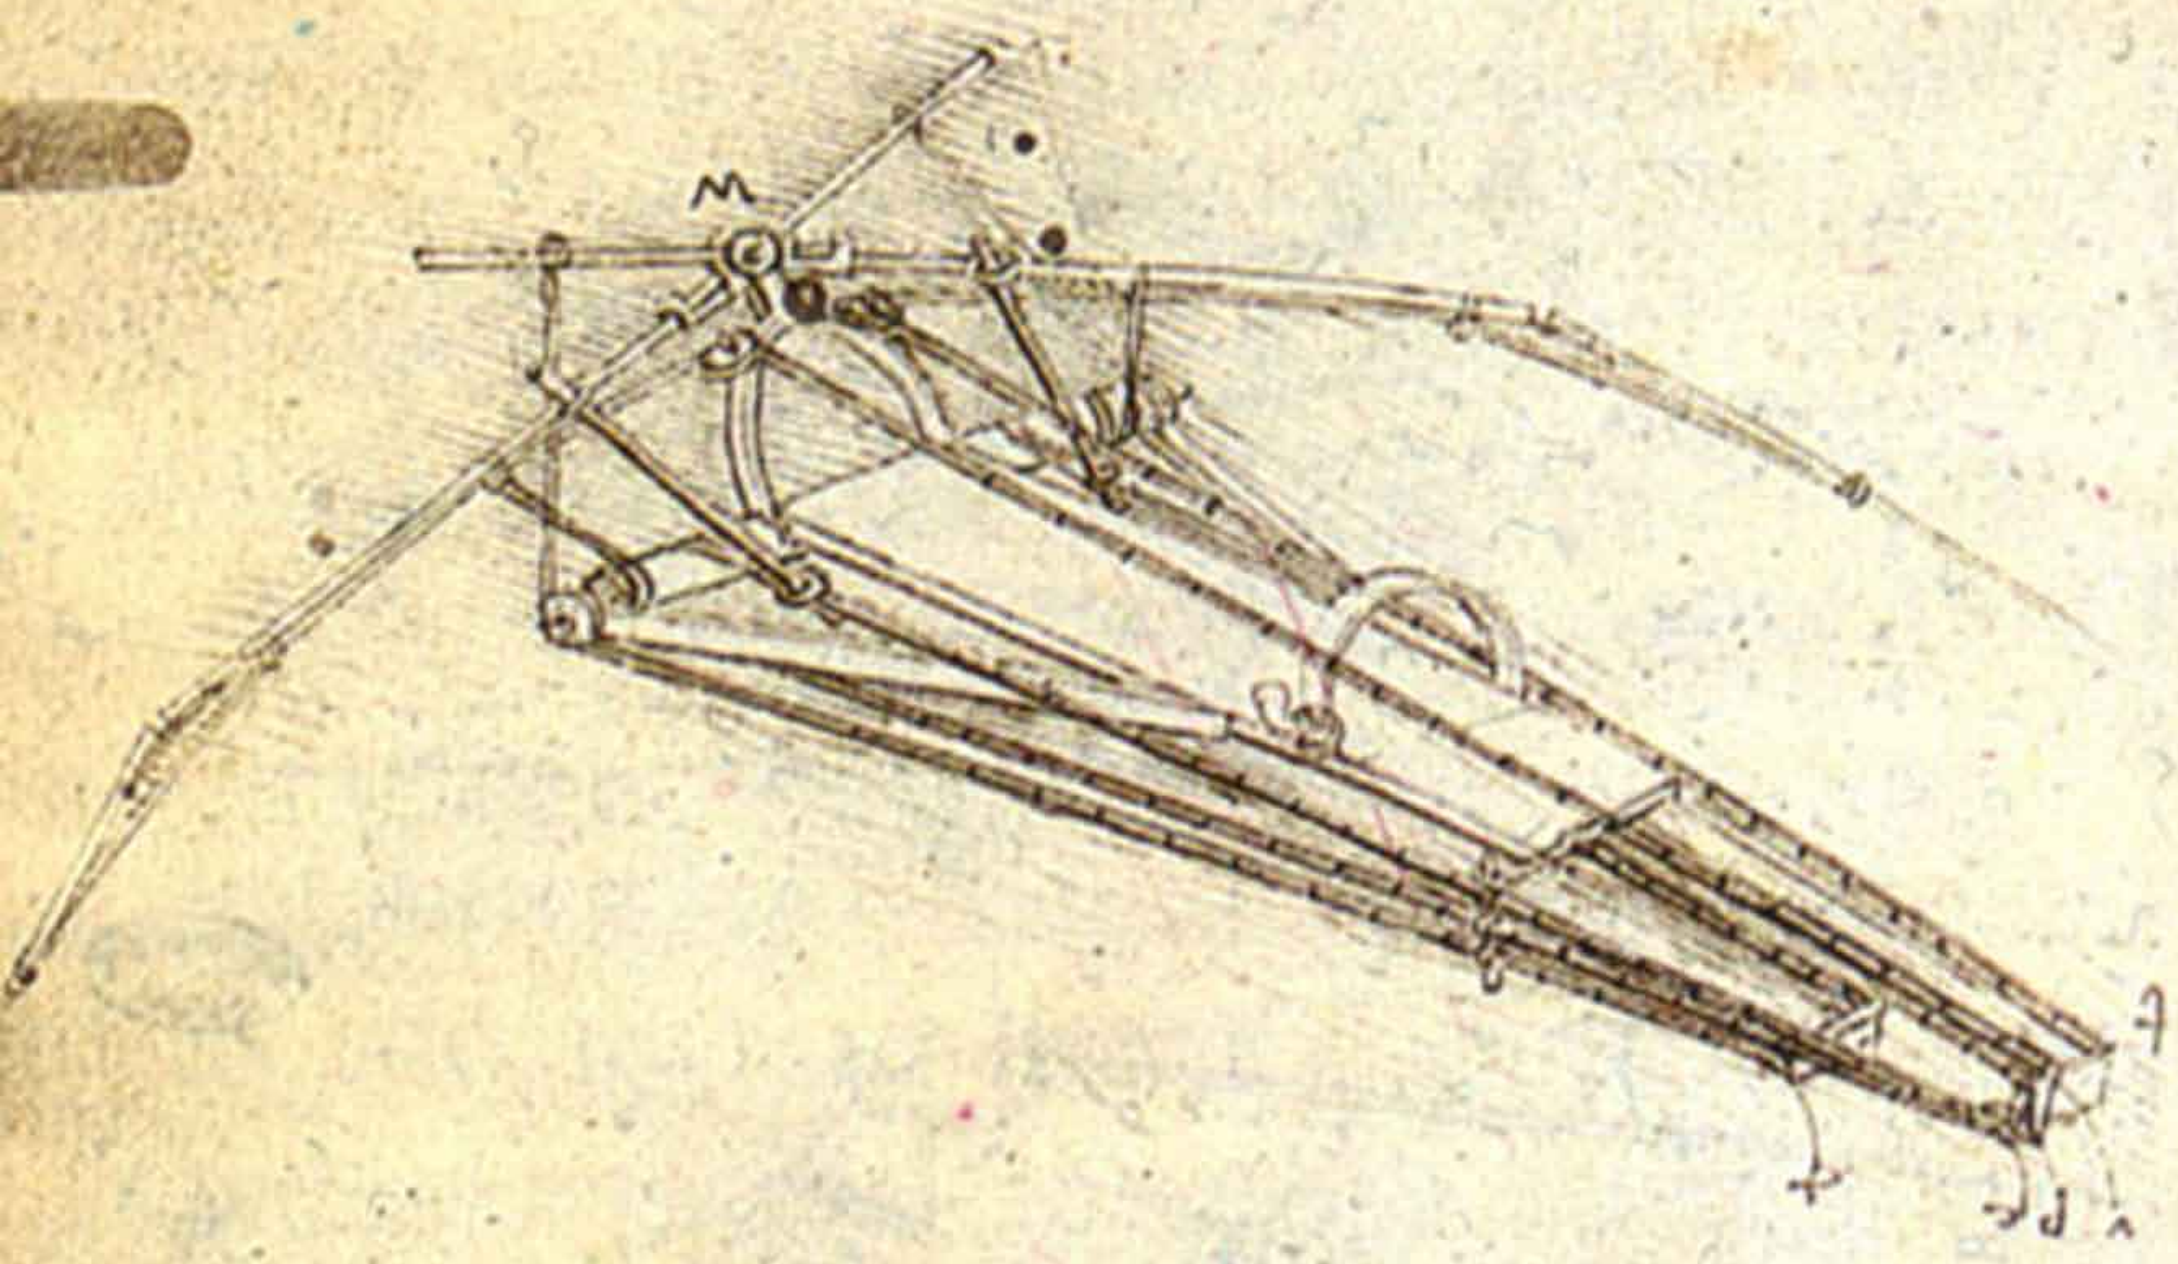

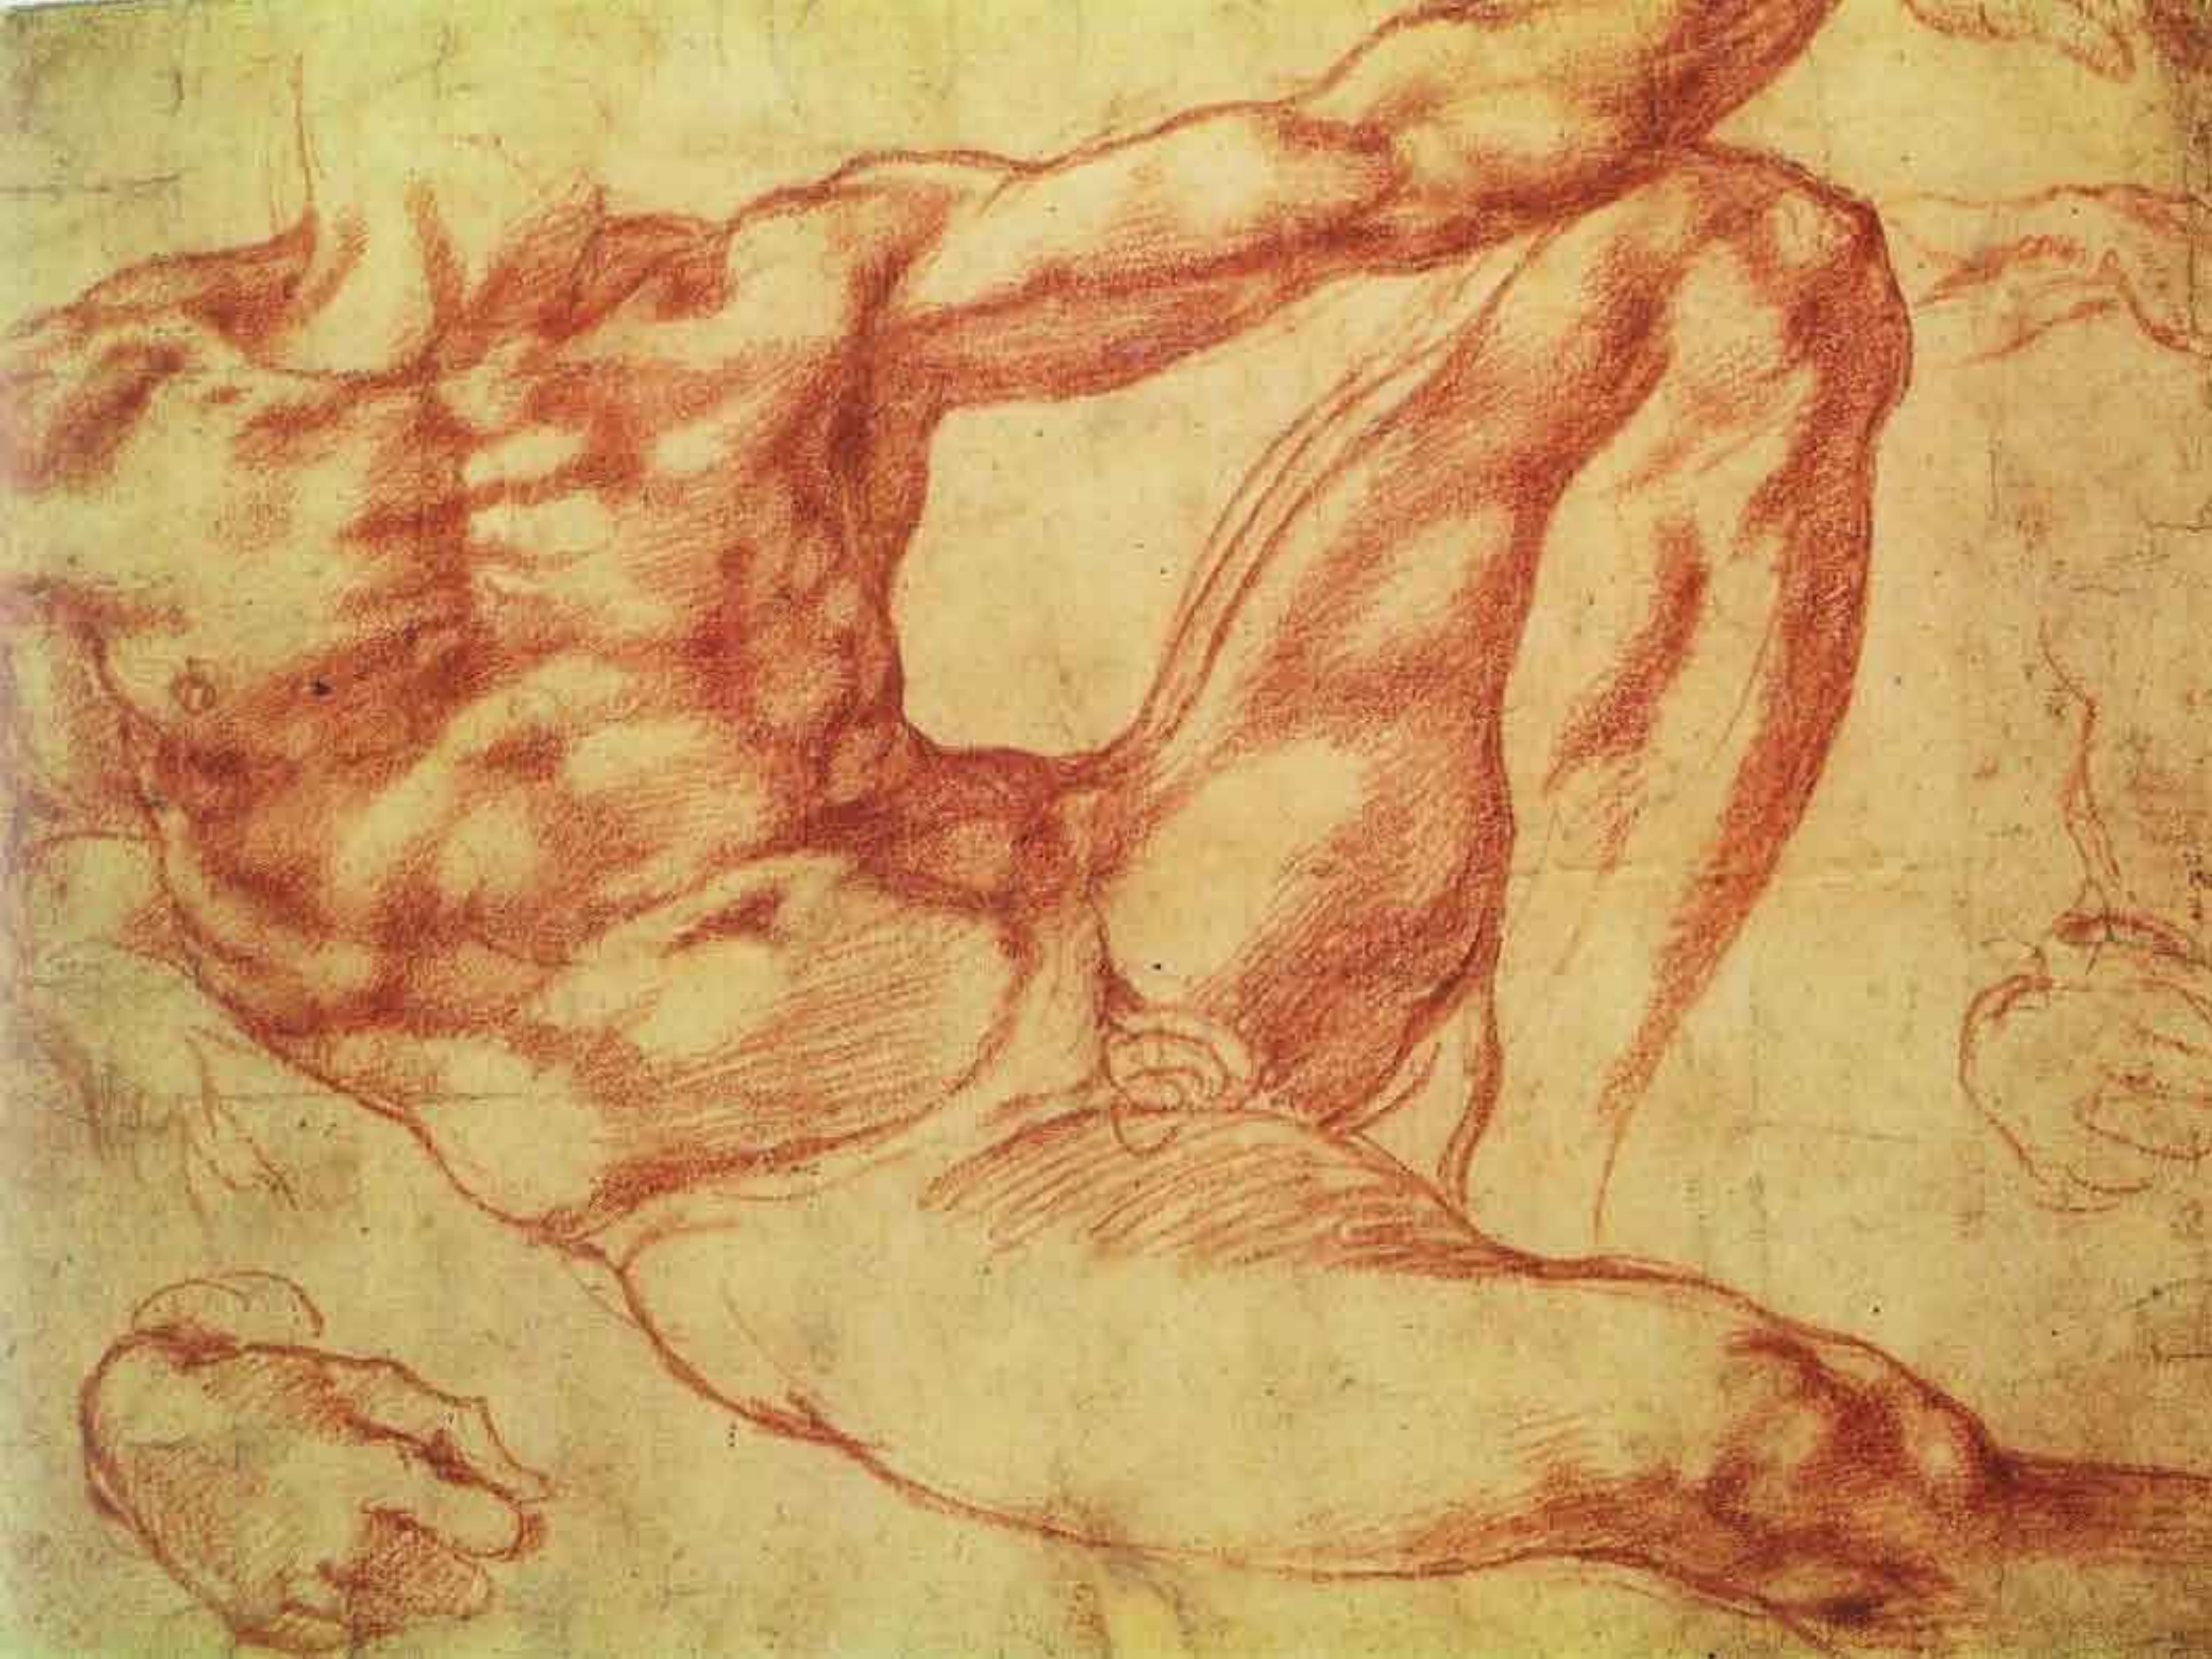

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical or scientific record, located below the swirling drawing. The text is written in a dark ink and is somewhat difficult to read due to its cursive nature and the age of the document. It appears to be a detailed description or a list of items related to the drawing above it.

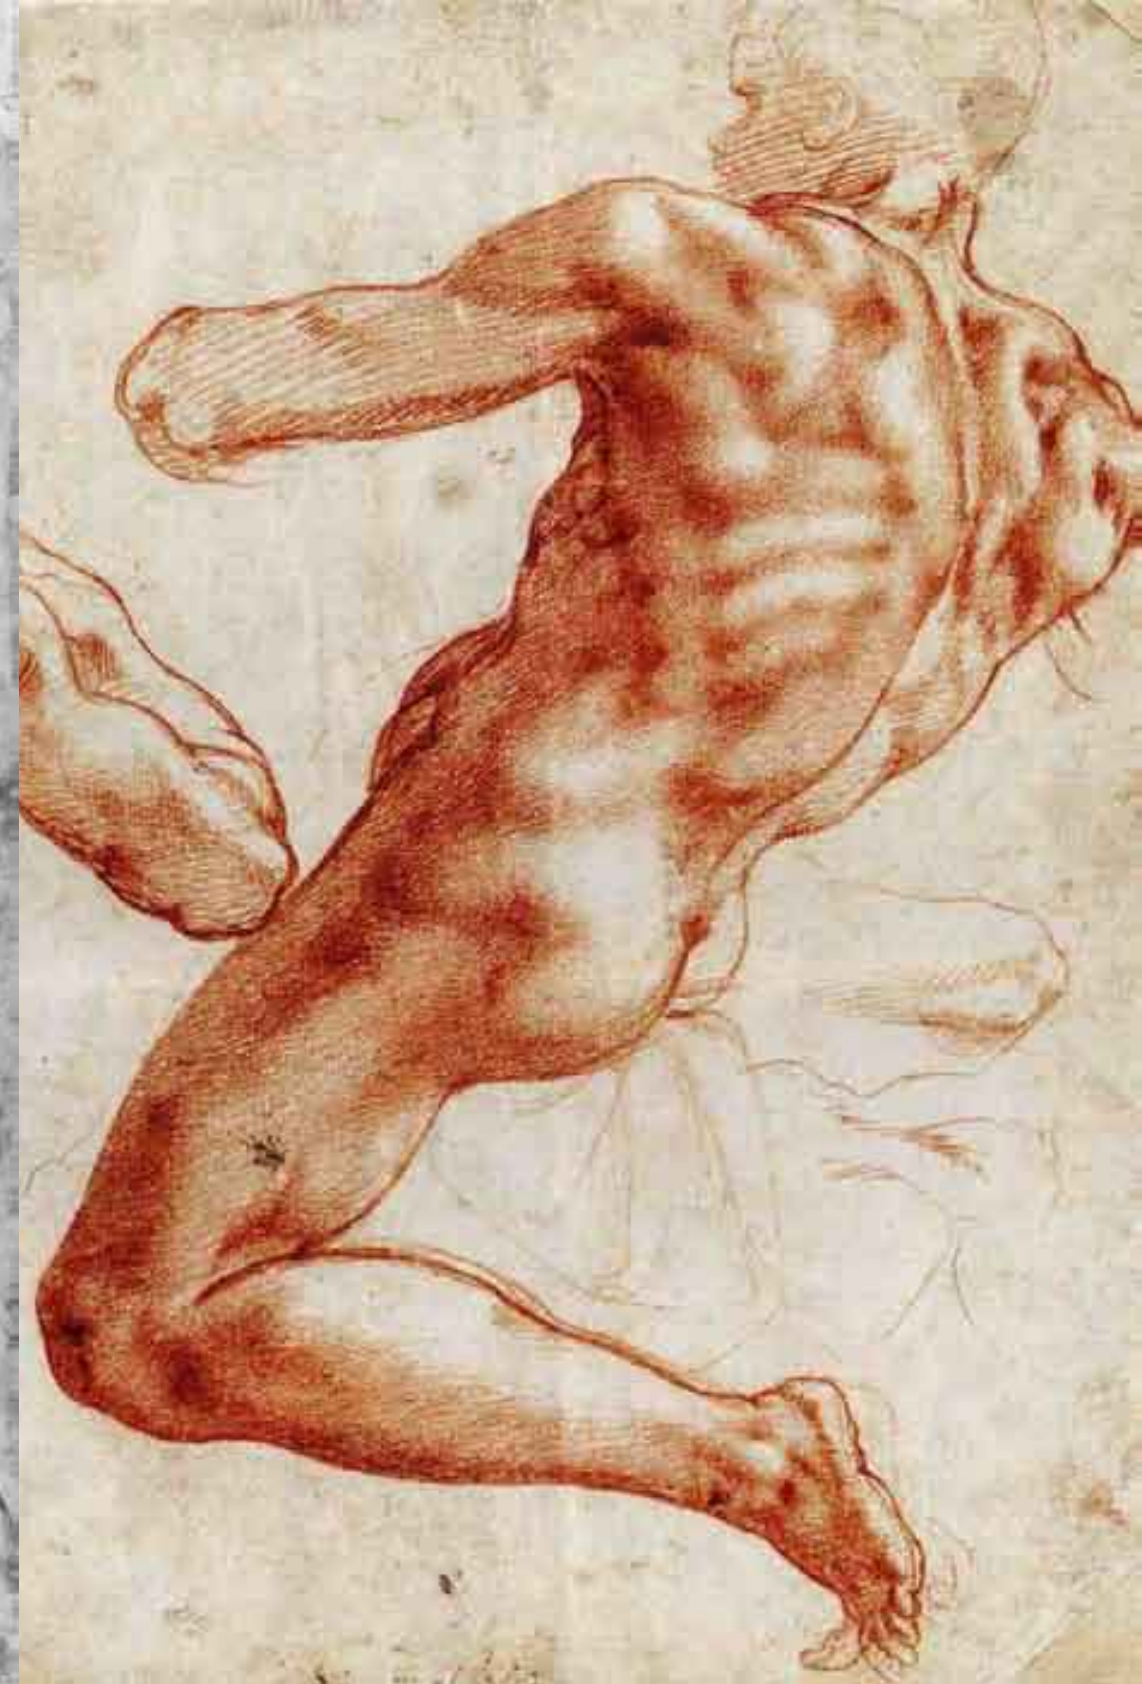

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a description or explanation of the mechanical system shown in the drawing above. The text is written in a dark ink on a light-colored background. The script is dense and difficult to read, but it appears to be a technical or scientific description. The text is arranged in several lines, starting from the left and moving towards the right. The overall appearance is that of a handwritten note or a page from a technical manual.
